HIGHLIGHTS OF HEIGHTS

BY KATHY MULLAN

As a professional Realtor, a big part of our service to our clients is to be the source of information to help them reach their goals. This includes learning about the towns they may be looking to buy a home in if they are not familiar with the area. All towns have their own unique features and amenities. For our seller clients, it is imperative when marketing their home to not only be knowledgeable about their home and property but also about the neighborhood the home is located in for the potential buyers.

Haddon Heights is so charming and welcoming all year round, it is an easy magnet for people coming from all over to fall in love with not only the house they are buying, but the whole town.

I could fill an entire magazine with all the great things about Haddon Heights, but for this article I thought it would be fun to highlight the outside summer fun we enjoy here.

HADDON GLEN SWIM CLUB

I sat down and had a nice chat with Kevin Gleason, who is currently one of the board members of the swim club to update me on all the happenings at the pool. Haddon Glen has been a beloved private pool for over 50 years. Recent upgrades for this season: resurfacing of the main pool, remodeled bathrooms, updated kiddie pool with fun water fountain, new basketball court and plenty of seating and umbrellas around the pool for shade.

There is a 25 meter pool with 6 lanes, diving well with two one-meter boards in addition to the kiddie pool. Members can enjoy the basketball court and playground, too.

Adults can enjoy not only a great family day but also spending time with their friends and neighbors, reading a book by the pool and exercise time each day with open adult lap swim times. Other fun events include float night, adult socials, Junior 3 on 3 basketball tournament and a Monday morning Fitness class. Take the stress out of planning a birthday party by reserving the covered party room area to set up your food for your guests.

Haddon Glen is also home of the much loved Tri-County Swim team called the SeaHorses. Such a great opportunity for ages 5 to 18 to learn the love of swimming and compete as a team. With all this fun there will be plenty of hungry bellies. The Seahorse Reef on sight overlooking the pool serves up plenty of delicious food options for all. Check out their website for more information and learn how to become a member. Haddonglen.org

PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS

We are so lucky to have access to such a beautiful park with walking trails that are enjoyed by all. Always a friendly smile or greeting as folks pass each other by. Not uncommon to see the scenery being the backdrop for photos. The wedding parties are a real treat to see. The McLaughlin and Norcross Memorial Dell is home to the amphitheater that was completely redone in 2019. Camden County hosts the ever popular Sundown Music Series there. Great talent can be enjoyed seven Wednesday evenings throughout the summer. The line up can be found at Camdencounty.com. Right next to the Dell is a wonderfully updated playground. For Disc Golf fans, there is a course that runs throughout the park.

The other popular outdoor playground is Hoff's park. Hoff's Park is also home to the Log Cabin, ball fields and the Community Center right across the street. Both the Community Center and the Log Cabin are available for rent to host an event or party while enjoying the playground. Applications can be found on the borough's website, Haddonhts.com.

The Summer Rec program is held here for kids 5 through 12 that offers plenty of outside fun including sports.

Right around the corner on Devon Avenue next to the Haddon Glen Pool are the soccer fields, tennis courts and Little Timber Creek Nature Trail.

In The Summer

FARMER'S MARKET SUNDAYS AND FRIDAY NIGHT MUSIC

Right in the heart of Station Avenue amongst all our beloved shops and favorite eateries is the weekly Sunday Farmers Market. Hosted by HIP (Heights In Progress Organization), you can shop for Jersey Fresh produce as well as check out all the Artisans, food trucks, and kids events. Cars and Coffee is a free event that also happens every Sunday morning as well for all to enjoy. Check out both the Cars and Coffee's and HIP's facebook pages for more information. On Friday nights starting at 6:00, Local Links Market Café offers pleasant live music you can hear walking downtown or get a table outside and enjoy a bite to eat from their delicious menu.

JULY 4TH PARADE AND FIRECRACKER 5K

The borough and Civic Events Committee always does a wonderful job putting together a wonderful line up celebrating our Nation's Birthday. The Haddon Heights Municipal Alliance kicks off the fun with a 5K race event for all ages that starts and ends at Hoff's park. After that, the parade starts at 9 AM starting on 2nd Avenue and ending at Hoff's park. The parade is always open to all that wish to register and includes classic vehicles and baby parade participants. Such a fun event every year that helps to bring the town together.

5. Community Garden
Located at 13 Glover Avenue is the Garden where you can register for a plot each season for 25.00 and enjoy growing your own organic vegetables or flowers. I myself have been renting a plot here for years that my son plants tomatoes and cucumbers that we enjoy all summer long. The Committee is led by Richard Burke and applications are available on the borough website.

Our downtown Station Avenue is of course what makes our town even more special. I always enjoy hearing people's reactions when they go to check it out for the first time. So many small businesses that I love to support that enrich all of our lives.

There is always a need for real estate help since all of our lives change and flow as the years go on. Many times folks need to move away. One point that has always interested me that is a little more unique to our town is that much of my business in Haddon Heights is moving people around. They may just need a bigger house or it is time to downsize, but the majority seem to stay. They just change houses. It truly is always an honor to help no matter where their next stop it. Call me with any of your real estate needs whether it is here in Haddon Heights or anywhere in Southern New Jersey.

EAT LOCAL:

LI BEIRUT

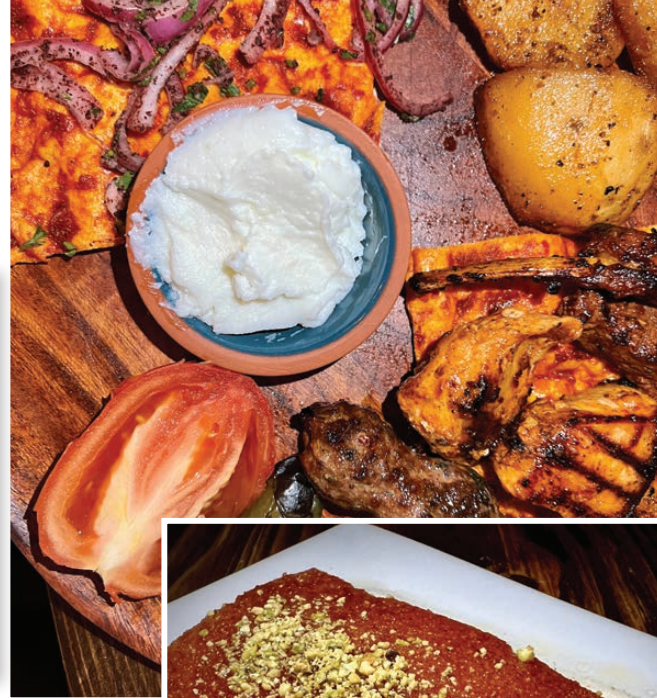

BY KRISTEN JORGENSEN

Take a trip to Lebanon without the passport! Collingswood has the perfect spot to experience true Lebanese cuisine right here in town with Li Beirut, a modern and sophisticated restaurant with a mixture of tastes straight from Lebanon.

Husband and wife team Patricia and Antoine Massoud, bought the Collingswood BYO Porch & Proper in January 2020 and continued to operate as an American cuisine establishment, until they had to abruptly close when the pandemic shutdown hit in mid-March. During the closure, in August of last year, the city of Beirut was devastated by a massive explosion on the waterfront that sadly left more than 200 dead, including a close friend of Patricia's. She herself had been born in Lebanon, and the family had been living there until returning to New Jersey in 2019. When the Massouds finally reopened their restaurant last September, it had a new name, Li Beirut ("to Beirut"), and the accompanying menu.

The Massouds explain, "Having lived and grown in Beirut, and having enjoyed the warmth and richness of the city, the hospitality and generosity of its people, we always felt urged to share our experience with our friends and loyal clients. Beirut is a multi-cultural metropolitan city, projected through art and music, landscape and architecture, religious diversity, knowledge and education, tradition and modern creativity, hospitality and generosity, all reflected in every aspect of the way of life, among which emerges the "Lebanese cuisine."

We walked into the sounds of Lebanese music and a warm inviting ambience. Tony ushered us to our table and gave us the run down of the menu and his personal recommendations. We decided on the ever popular tasting menu for two. We chose one salad to share, the Tabbouleh with fresh chopped parsley, tomatoes, green onions, mint, cracked wheat, served with fresh lemon juice and olive oil. Next was the parade of classic mezza to begin, a sampling of hummus, baba ghanouj, labne, mouhamara, and more. For entrees, Grace tackled the popular Mixed Grill for one, though it could feed two people happily, or one person with an incredible appetite.

I went for the Samke Harra, a grilled fish of the day, which in this instance was cod, garnished with parsley, onions, and tomatoes.

Though our palates were incredibly satisfied at this point, Li Beirut's desserts are not to be missed. With multiple variations on baklava to the best kanafe of stretchy hot cheese, served beside a sesame-speckled pita, it's the elevation of experience, not just flavors, that make dessert a must. My personal favorite in the dessert column was the ghazal Beirut, a dish of house-made ice cream topped with a nest of spun sugar that emulates the texture of cotton candy and pistachios.

When leaving, Tony (so friendly) asked us when we would be returning. With dishes as good as the ones we just experienced, we will be back a second, third and perhaps even fourth time this year- and you will too!

MEET THE KITCHMIRE FAMILY:

Ted and Becky Spark Joy In Heights

BY KRISTEN JORGENSEN | PHOTOS BY MATT SOULT

“Remember that the happiest people are not those getting more, but those giving more.”

“I had a party at my house and invited Becky’s brother. I told him to bring her along. At the party I discovered she had recently broken up with her boyfriend, so I asked her if she was willing to uphold her end of the bet and let me take her out. She agreed and I picked her up on a Friday, and we have been together ever since.”

After the couple got married in 1994, they went on to grow their family, and had two daughters, Rebecca, “Becca” and Alexis “Alex”. Both daughters, just a year apart in age, graduated from college during the pandemic in May of 2020. Becca has a master’s in biomedical engineering from Drexel University. She is also a classically trained pianist and enjoys long distance running. Alex has a bachelor of fine arts in animation and illustration from Montclair State University. She is a drummer in the band Futeur and enjoys freelancing for her many clients. “The girls are very different from one another,

Every month Heights Living magazine searches to find leading community members to present to our readers on the cover of our monthly magazine.

This month’s feature cover family goes to the Kitchmire family. With several nominations for their involvement within the community, it became clear that Ted and Becky were the perfect choice for our July edition.

SPARKS WERE FLYING

Ted, originally from Barrington, moved to Haddon Heights with his parents, when he was just a high school freshman and has been in town for over 42 years. Becky, a third generation Heights resident was born and raised in town and has been here longer than Ted. The entire family is a product of the Haddon Heights School District. Not only did Ted and Becky meet working at the local grocery store, but their daughters Rebecca, now 25 and Alexis, 24 both worked there when they were in high school as well.

The couple both met while working at local grocery store, John’s Market in October of 1988. “Becky and I met while working at John’s Market. I started there in 1987 and Becky started a year later. We got along really well, and there was definitely an instant attraction. I couldn’t wait to hear what she had to say next.” explains Ted. Though the stars seemed to align for these two, there was a catch. “I was 22 years old and Becky was 16 years old, and her dad was a police officer, with a gun”. Ted jokes. “But all kidding aside, we definitely had chemistry, she made me laugh all the time. But Becky was younger than me, so I knew I was too old for her at the time.” Ted goes on to explain that at one point the two of them made a bet, and the terms were that if he lost, when Becky turned 18, he would get to take her out on a date. Fast forward a few years, Ted graduated college and Becky celebrated her 18th birthday. She ran into Ted again while attending a party with her brother at Ted’s house.

but both have a common favorite hobby, picking on their dad!" Becky jokes.

The Kitchmire family also have a fur child, a 1 year old basset hound named Mona Lisa. Becky explains that adopting Mona Lisa was a kismet situation. They adopted her at 8 months old from a family with the last name of Nassau, just like their electrical company. "We knew she was the pup for us, it was too coincidental."

THE POWER OF COMMUNITY

Ted has a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Rutgers University, while Becky has a bachelor's degree in elementary education and communications from Rowan University. "We thought our futures would be in education as teachers" explains Becky. But as life would have it, there were other plans in the works for them. "Nassau Electric was started by my grandfather, I was third generation. When I was about 16 years old, my mother asked me if I planned on driving and having a car. Of course I answered yes, so that's when she told me to get a job." Ted laughs. Ted took his mother's advice and called his Uncle, who had taken over the business after his grandfather had passed away. He started working at Nassau Electric throughout his high school and college years.

Later down the road, Ted decided to redirect his career path from education to running his own electrical company business with Becky. While out one day, Ted ran into his Uncle who mentioned that he was planning on retiring and closing the business. Ted, of course, didn't want to see that happen, so he took his uncle out to breakfast and worked out an agreement to take over the family business, and the rest is history. Growing up in Heights and working at John's Market in the early years, the couple both had grown to know a lot of people in the area. Then with running a local business in town for over 26 years, plus with their kids' activities as they got older, the family became very immersed in the community. Both Ted and Becky felt that it was extremely important to them at the time to support the town and give back.

"When we were running our company, we wanted to give back to the town that did so much for our family. We wanted to support a town that supported us", explains Ted. "So much of our work was here in Haddon Heights, and paying it forward is important. We really appreciated the people of this town, and their business, so it was an honor to give back in any way that we could." Ted goes on to explain. The family volunteered to orchestrate and operate many of the fun family events in Heights over the years.

Ted and Becky ran the 4th of July activities and fireworks in Haddon Heights for about 7 years and served as the president and treasurer for many of those years. Ted served on the HHYA board and coached the girls' softball team for many years. Becky served on the Haddon Heights Board of Education for 9 years, with 5 of those years serving as President. They were both members of the Haddon Heights Band Auxiliary and Ted served as President for 2 years. "We really felt lucky to have had such a wonderful community to work for, to live in and to raise our children in. It was important to us to thank the community by giving back."

NEW OUTLETS

Now with both girls finished with school and in their early twenties, both Ted and Becky have stepped back from the involvement of volunteering in the town and are entering into a new chapter of life. "We spent many years volunteering in town. Now that our children are grown, we have taken a step back to spend time together." Becky tells me.

Ted also recently closed the doors to their business and works as the electrical sub-code official and electrical inspector in Gloucester Township. Becky also started a new career working as the administrative assistant to the Superintendent in the Haddon Heights School District. The family has slowed down to enjoy spending time at their vacation home. "We have a waterfront vacation home in Pennsylvania. Our family loves it there and we spend a lot of time there just relaxing. We purchased the home when our children were very young and are fortunate that they still enjoy it". Explains Becky

In closing, I always ask our featured families a very important question. What message or greeting would you like to share with your neighbors? Becky responded "We feel very fortunate to have served our community for so many years. We are proud of what we have achieved and we will miss it." Ted chimes in, "We would like to thank everyone that has helped us along the way including a great group of employees and incredibly loyal customers. We couldn't be more thankful for the experience and the friendships we have made. A special thank you to the residents of Haddon Heights, it has been our pleasure to serve you."

May the Force be with you this holiday season.

Meet "Muy Guapo" Felipe!

BY KRISTEN JORGENSEN

Here at Heights Living magazine, we believe every furry friend is special in their own way, but sometimes we meet absolutely "pawsitively purrfect" companions that deserve to spend a few moments in the spotlight! This month that honors goes to little Felipe!

Felipe is a four year old chihuahua/terrier mix. He is a rescue from Puerto Rico but now lives on Crest Avenue! The name he came with was the same as two members in his new house so it had to be changed to the Spanish version. Felipe's mom says he is cautious of other people but quickly warms up and loves to cuddle. A fun fact about little Felipe is he has an amazing pouncing ability which according to his mom, "never gets old"!

If you would like to submit your pet to be featured as the next "Pet of the Month", please send a few pictures and brief description of your furry friend to our publisher Grace Hopper at ghopper@bestversionmedia.com

Pepper-Crusted Maple-Glazed Salmon

By Madison Farkas

This recipe feels decadent, but it's actually very simple to make.

Ingredients:

- 3/4 cup maple syrup
- 1/4 cup soy sauce
- 4 6-oz. salmon filets, skin removed
- 1/4 cup coarse ground black pepper
- 1/2 tsp. oil

Directions:

1. Mix maple syrup and soy sauce. Pour over salmon and marinate for at least four hours (or overnight).
2. Preheat oven to 500 degrees F. Using a paper towel, rub the oil on a foil-lined baking sheet.
3. Pat the top side of the salmon with a thin, even layer of pepper. Place pepper side up on the baking sheet.
4. Bake on the top rack of the oven for approximately seven minutes. It may smoke a little. The salmon can also be grilled on a barbecue over hot coals for about three minutes per side.
